Breaking through The Besieging Lines

And Isaac dug again the wells of water which they had dug in the days of Abraham his father, for the Philistines had stopped them up after the death of Abraham. He called them by the names which his father had called them. (Genesis 26:18 NKJV)

Cleaning up the old well which his father Abraham had dug was an important thing that Isaac had accomplished in his life. After Abraham's time, the well was blocked. The livelihood and the inheritance from the previous generation was stopped too. Isaac searched out all these clogged wells and re-dug them, and “called them by the names which his father had called them” as to honor what his forefathers had done.

What revelation have we received concerning the spiritual order? We all have our spiritual inheritances in the body of Christ, inheriting all the blessings from heaven beyond national borders and tribes. Redigging our spiritual old wells could make us once again “with joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation” (Isaiah 12:3 NKJV).

The course of a city cannot be derailed from her history. Hong Kong was opened as treaty port for 180 years on 26th January, 2021. Unintentionally, I happened to be near Possession Street, Sheung Wan on that day. Not knowing if it was a coincidence or not, I wondered if the Holy Spirit was wanting to remind me of anything. This part of history, including the ugly and unequal treaties, was definitely humiliating to say the least. Yet through this, Hong Kong was uniquely preserved. For this extraordinary reason, the gospel was widely spread. Many churches, Christian schools and social service organizations were established to serve the poor and needy with the love of Jesus Christ. The plumbline of the Ten Commandments in the Bible also unwittingly became the nutrients of this city (I preached a series of messages on the Ten Commandments in early 2020 and published a book based on my sermons. If you are interested, you can contact Incubator Ministries for more information). Because of the upholding of the rule of law and human rights, Hong Kong has miraculously become an international financial centre. The identity of a Hongkonger does not only include those who are ethnically Chinese, but also Southeast Asians, Europeans, North Americans and others. This has fully portrayed the ways of God and His plans. Who would have known before hand?

The industrial revolution in the 18th century caused Great Britain to expand her maritime power. The theory of evolution by Charles Darwin challenged the faith of the believers and the church, and as imperialism expanded, this challenge invaded the world everywhere. Internally, Britain was under attack and was swallowed by greed and atheism, causing irreversible stains in her history. The country was well developed but people were living in spiritual darkness. For this reason, the people of God in Britain started to cry out to God, which led to the Great Awakening of the British Isles. Revival fire burnt the islands. The mission work spread as the fleets and the battleships set sail and finally arrived in our part of the world. Since then, the gospel of Jesus Christ and the missionaries were loaded with a heavy historical burden. The spiritual inheritance of the city of Hong Kong was birthed in this great century of missionaries: William Carey, Robert Morrison, David Livingstone, Hudson Taylor, who have spread the gospel to Africa, China and Asia.

The changes in Hong Kong in recent years have forced us to redefine our own identity, and leave our comfort zones, some as a diaspora to different nations. In the days to come, quite a number of us will be migrating to different places, including the British Isles! Christians who have decided to move to Britain, just as what Isaac did, may re-dig the old well of spiritual inheritances. They may dig out the old well of salvation so that Britain may once again taste the goodness of the gospel. Maybe for the coming years, those who have migrated, together with those who choose to stay, will once again find our own identity and the destiny of this city: the destiny of our city is actually the destiny of every single Hongkonger who lives here and now in this place. The history in the past could not be erased but we will create our future together with the next generation.

As sons and daughters of God, we have a greater assignment to bring the city of Hong Kong and all her inhabitants before God. In one accord, we dig out the wellspring of salvation of the great times of mission. It may look like we were forced to disperse to different places. What if we actually could work together with Hongkongers who choose to stay to break through our limitations and enlarge our impact to become a new mission force in the globe? Though HongKongers are hard-pressed on every side, we shall not be crushed!

We are hard-pressed on every side, yet not crushed.

2020 was an extraordinary year. When COVID-19 raged through the world, we had determined to:

worship and lift up the Lord of All unceasingly!

yearn for the heavenly revelation, and perceive the endtime crisis and the tribulation of the world with faith and hope of God.

live above the raging storms and connect with our family in a vast spiritual sky regardless of the restrictions of the pandemic.

Believe deeply that now is the kairos moment to advance His kingdom in these turbulent and unsettling times.

Therefore, in the face of the pandemic and hardship from every side, we still hold fast to His assignment entrusted to us: enforcing the endtime worship and prayer movement; building the city of righteousness for Him by equipping the saints and advancing the kingdom of God.

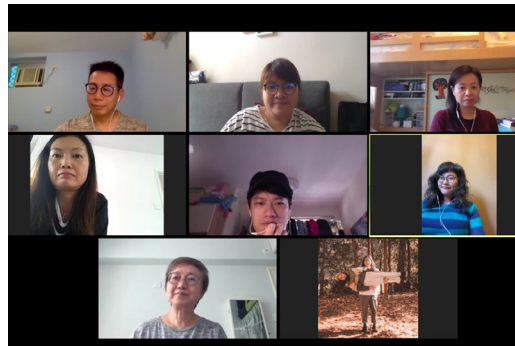

Although the physical gatherings are restricted during this pandemic, we have put our effort to explore all kinds of online communication channels, as well as continuously improving platforms to release the messages of God, allowing an endless flow of revelations and truth from God to be released to brothers and sisters - both local and overseas - without barriers. We intend that they would find hope in the darkness and prepare to face the tribulations at the end, for the coming of our Lord Jesus!

Praise the Lord! Last year, we had launched the following channels and platforms one by one: the brand new IM website, IM TV on Youtube, the online course platforms, streaming of the harp and bowl daily gatherings and the weekly celebrations. In the coming days, we are looking forward to sharing more resources with this city. Thank you for walking with us and thank you for all your support!

「在我敵人面前，你為我擺設筵席；
你用油膏了我的頭，使我的福杯滿溢。」詩23:5

✦ 神沒有消滅我們的敵人，但祂的同在成為我們最大的保護，叫敵人只能在我們面前張牙舞爪，咬牙切齒，但卻不能動我們一根頭髮。
✦ 神是慷慨的，祂給我們的祝福是滿溢的，我們要帶著信心去享受神為我們所預備的豐盛筵席。

在我敵人面前，
你為我擺設筵席；
你用油膏了我的頭，

《耶和華是我們的保護者》 24-28.2.2020 | 詩121

【引言】

詩篇120至135篇，共十五篇，是「上行之詩」；新譯本譯為「朝聖之歌」。

當以色列人要往耶路撒冷的聖殿守節獻祭，來到錫安山的山腳，要往上行的時候，他們就會開始唱這組詩篇。這些詩，反映了他們來到神面前的願望、信心與祈禱。說明每一個來到神面前的人，應當對他所敬拜的神有敬畏的心，尊重祂，並信靠祂。

我要向山舉目：我的幫助從何而來？
我的幫助從天地的耶和華而來。
